

María Eugenia Galiana Sánchez

Enfermera y doctora en Salud Pública. Profesora Titular de Enfermería en la Universidad de Alicante. Investigadora del programa de doctorado de Ciencias de la Salud de la Universidad de Alicante, del doctorado de Ciencias de la Enfermería de Universidad Jaume I y del Doctorado Interuniversitario en Estudios Históricos y Sociales sobre Ciencia, Medicina y Comunicación Científica. Ha centrado su actividad investigadora en la salud comunitaria y en la historia de la enfermería y de la salud pública en la España y Europa contemporánea. Entre sus publicaciones más recientes destacan "The Role of International Organisations in the Development of Public Health Nursing, 1933–1974", Gesnerus, y "History of public health nursing in Spain and the international context", European Journal for nursing History and Ethics. Actualmente es IP del proyecto de investigación: "Pasado y presente en el control de las enfermedades de la pobreza desatendidas: el ejemplo histórico de la Europa mediterránea y la cooperación sanitaria internacional" de la Agencia Estatal de Investigación del Ministerio de Economía y Competitividad (MINECO).

Maria Eugenia Galiana -Sánchez

MSc Nurs, BSc Nurs, PhD in Public Health. Professor of Nursing at the University of Alicante. She is researcher of the doctorate program of Health Sciences of the University of Alicante, of the Doctoral Program of Nursing Sciences of the Jaume I University and of the Doctorate in Historical and Social Studies on Science, Medicine and Scientific Communication. She has focused his research activity in the Community Health and in the history of Public Health and nursing in Spain and contemporary Europe. Among her most recent publications stand out: "The Role of International Organizations in the Development of Public Health Nursing, 1933–1974", Gesnerus, or, "History of public health nursing in Spain and the international context ", European Journal for Nursing History and Ethics. Currently she is IP of the research project: "Past and present in the control of neglected diseases of poverty: the historical example of Mediterranean Europe and international health cooperation" of the State Research Agency of the Ministry of Economy and Competitiveness (MINECO).